OWNERSHIP

STAN KASTEN

OWNER, LOS ANGELES SPARKS

Stan Kasten became president and CEO of the Los Angeles Dodgers on April 30, 2012. For more than three decades, Kasten has been a highly-respected sports figure and has developed a reputation for creating winning sports franchises.

In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously. He accomplished this unique feat with Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves, the National Basketball Association's Atlanta Hawks and the National Hockey League's Atlanta Thrashers. Kasten's professional career is highlighted by the Braves' 1995 World Championship. During his tenure, the Braves and Hawks made a combined 30 post-season appearances and claimed 15 division titles, including 12 in a row in the Braves' unprecedented run from 1991-2003. He was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career, including NBA committees on marketing, player pensions and expansion and the NBA Board of Governors, MLB's owners negotiating committee and chairman of the Player Personal Development Committee, and the NHL's Board of Governors and its executive committee. He is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. Throughout his impressive sports career, Kasten has relied on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field. In 1979, at age 27, Kasten became the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks. He held the position until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986. During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten became the first -- and only – NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87. With the help of future NBA Hall of Famer Dominique Wilkins, Kasten was able to build Atlanta into a perennial playoff contender, posting four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89, and set franchise attendance records. In the 1990s, Kasten guided Atlanta to a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances, including three 50-win seasons.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB. As president of the Braves, Kasten helped assemble talented teams that consistently competed for a world championship. Led by manager Bobby Cox, the Braves teams of that era were built around a deep pitching staff that featured Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine, Steve Avery and John Smoltz. The cornerstone of the Braves' lineup was All-Star third baseman Chipper Jones. From 1991-2005, the Braves won 14 consecutive division titles, five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series. In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena. He was also involved in the design and construction of Turner Field. Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

On Jan. 24, 2014, Kasten was elected to the LA84 Foundation's board of directors. LA84 is the legacy of the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and primary funder of youth athletics in Southern California. Four days later, on Jan. 28, he was named 2013 Sports Executive of the Year by the Los Angeles Sports Council.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law School. Kasten and his wife, Helen, have four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

LOS ANGELES SPARKS | 2015 MEDIA GUIDE

EXECUTIVE VP/GM

PENNY TOLER

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Penny Toler has had many shining moments throughout her 21 years with the Sparks franchise as a player, General Manager and even interim head coach in 2014. She has a keen eye for talent and year after year has assembled world class Los Angeles Sparks teams that have earned three WNBA Championships under her leadership in 2001, 2002 and last season 2016. Penny is the winningest and longest tenure GM in the WNBA league. After losing nearly half of the 2016 season championship team (Evgeniia Belyakova, Ana Dabovic, Jelena Dubljevic, Ann Wauters) to oversee commitments. Toler has once again kept the team at the top of the leader board by restructuring over half the 2016 team by adding key players like Odyssey Sims, Riquna Williams, Tiffany Jackson Jones, Maimouna Diarra. and Sydney Wiese (1st Round Draft pick.) Furthermore, with the unexpected free agency departure of Kristi Toliver, Penny didn't panic. She quickly orchestrated a trade to acquire one of the best point guards in the WNBA in Odyssey Sims, via a trade acquisition with the Dallas Wings giving the Sparks arguably one of the best front/back court combos in all the WNBA and simultaneously in that same trade she acquired a first-round draft pick for the 2018 Draft so that the Sparks could continue to build for the future. Chemistry is crucial in assembling a competitive team. Despite not having any of the players from the 2016 Championship team available during training camp, Penny with her depth of experience at judging talent was still able to acquire the right chemistry of players to keep the Sparks at the top of the leader board. This years marks the 16th playoff appearance in her 18th year as General Manager of the Sparks. Penny has re-signed all the Sparks core players (Candace Parker, Jantel Lavender and Nneka Ogwumike) in the off season to multi-year deals to stay with the Sparks team, ensuring the Sparks will be competitive for many years to come and compete for future WNBA Championships.

In 1997, Toler scored the first basket in the WNBA and in 2014, she became the only female in professional sports to have consecutively been a player, executive and head coach for the same team when she took over the reins as head coach midway through the season.

Toler stepped in as head coach with 12 games remaining in the 2014 regular season, guiding the Sparks to a 6 – 6 (.500) record and leading the Sparks to its record-setting 14th WNBA postseason appearance. Following the end of the 2014 season, she hung up her coaching board to return to her dual role as general manager/executive vice president heading into the 2015 season.

Toler has served as the general manager/executive vice president with the team since 2012, and as general manager/vice president since her retirement as a player in November 1999. Her skills at roster-building and keen sense of basketball operations are complemented by her years as a professional athlete, making her one of the most respected general managers in the game.

In her 16 seasons as general manager, Toler has guided the team to two WNBA titles (2001,2002), three conference championships (2001-2003) and to 14 postseason appearances (1999-06 and 2008-10, 2012-14). Named general manager just prior to the 2000 season, she compiled back-to-back WNBA Championship teams two seasons into her tenure, to give Los Angeles titles in 2001 and 2002. Among all professional men and women sports leagues, Toler became the fastest person to go from a player to general manager status to winning a championship in two years.

As a player, she scored the first basket in WNBA history on June 21, 1997 vs. the New York Liberty, and finished the inaugural season as the Sparks' second leading scorer with 13.1 points per game. The following season, she shot an impressive 41.7% from three-point range to rank second in the WNBA while finishing fifth in the league in assists at 4.8 per game.

After three seasons, she hung up her basketball shoes following the 1999 season with WNBA career averages of 10.0 points, 2.8 rebounds and 4.0 assists in 88 games played. She retired from playing professional basketball with a combined 13 years overseas/WNBA experience. In addition to the Sparks, she was also a member of the USA Basketball Women's Competition Committee where she assisted in the selection of three gold medal winning teams: the 2002 World University Championship games, the 2004 Olympic team and the 2008 Olympic team. In an effort to advance the women's game, she was also a strong advocate in implementing the 24- second shot clock and turning the two, 20-minutes halves into four, 10-minute quarters.

In 2006, she again made history when the Sparks retired #11 in recognition of her playing and management career, becoming the first female athlete to have her jersey retired at STAPLES Center.

Toler graduated from Long Beach State University in 1989 where she set several school records including career assists (513) and career free-throw percentage (.795). A member of two Final Four teams, (1987 and 1988) under Coach Joan Bonvicini, she earned Kodak All-America honors, Pacific Coast Athletic Association Player of the Year and Co-Big West Player of the Year recognition in 1988 and 1989. She scored 2,193 points in three seasons of play at LBSU (sitting out the 1985-86 season after transferring from San Diego State). Toler's impressive collegiate career was recognized with her induction into the LBSU Hall of Fame in 1995 and a jersey retirement ceremony in 2007 by the Forty-Niner Athletics Department.

Beyond the WNBA, Toler combined her sense of community and business savvy and began her "Points from Penny" program in 1998. The goal of the program is to teach youth in the Los Angeles and Las Vegas areas the fundamentals of basketball, the importance of teamwork and the value of competition. The program was nominated for several awards during its tenure including: the American Express Entrepreneurial Spirit Award. Since that time she has focused on bringing the same type of community-oriented programs to the Sparks front office.

Toler's hobbies include going to the movies, getting interior design tips from HGTV and working with underprivileged youth. She also sits on the Long Beach State Advisory Committee for the sports management program. Raised in Washington D.C. with three brothers and four sisters, Toler currently resides in Los Angeles.

HEAD COACH

BRIAN AGLER

Head Coach

On Jan. 5, 2015, Agler became the 12th head coach in Los Angeles Sparks history, bringing with him over 30 years of head-coaching experience, including 11 in the WNBA. In his first season with LA , Agler led the Sparks to a league-best 15th postseason appearance. Just one year later he led them to a 26-8 regular season mark and the 2016 WNBA championship, the third league title in the franchise's history.

Along the way, three Sparks players earned major WNBA awards in 2016 -- Nneka Ogwumike (league MVP); Candace (Finals MVP); and Jantel Lavender (Sixth Woman of the Year). The 2016 championship, when coupled with the one captured by his Seattle Storm in 2010, made Agler the first head coach in WNBA history to guide two different franchises to a title.

The all-time winningest coach in women's professional basketball history in the U.S. with 296 regular-season victories, Agler enters the 2018 campaign with 224 wins as a WNBA head coach and 72 from his tenure in the ABL.

Immediately prior to joining the Sparks, Agler spent seven seasons (2008-14) at the helm of the Storm, guiding Seattle to the playoffs in each of his first six campaigns and compiling an overall regular-season record of 136-102 (.571) during his tenure there. In 2010, when Agler was recognized as the WNBA Coach of the Year, his Storm – led by league MVP Lauren Jackson and All-Star Sue Bird – captured the franchise's second WNBA title with an impressive regular 28-6 season record and a 7-0 run through the postseason.

Agler first joined the WNBA as Head Coach and GM of the expansion Minnesota Lynx from 1999-2002, where he compiled a 42-54 (.438) record. Following that, Agler was an assistant with the Phoenix Mercury in 2004 before spending 2005-07 as an assistant with the San Antonio Stars.
Agler's move to the WNBA's Lynx in 1999 followed three seasons as head coach of the ABL's Columbus Quest from 1996-1999, when his teams compiled a 72-18 regular-season record and a 10-4 mark in the postseason. Agler led the Quest to back-to-back ABL championships in 1997 and 1998 and was the ABL Coach of the Year for the 1996-97 campaign.

Agler spent 15 seasons coaching in the collegiate ranks, including 13 seasons as a head coach. He posted an impressive collegiate record of 248-135 (.648 winning percentage). From 1993-96 he served as the head women's basketball coach at Kansas State. In 1998, Agler took over as the head women's coach at the University of Missouri-Kansas City. In five seasons at UMKC, Agler was 85-54 and took the Kangaroos from a 9-16 record in 1988-89 to four straight winning seasons.
